Subsequently, following points were put forward and deliberated by various EC members;

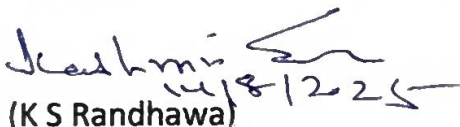

B. Agenda points discussed

1. Minutes of the 1st meeting of EC held on 19th February 2025 were approved by the EC.
2. It was decided to celebrate ONGC Day on 23rd August 2025 at Scope Complex auditorium.
 - a. General Secretary informed that venue has been booked for 23rd Aug 2025 and as decided by EC, troop has been hired for cultural program during this event.
 - b. EC decided to start event by 1100 Hrs sharp so that all activities including cultural program gets over before start of lunch at 1330 hrs.
 - c. It was also decided not to open lunch till completion of programs in the auditorium to ensure adequate presence of members during the cultural performances.
 - d. To ensure timely completion of event, talk by Doctor planned earlier was deferred and instead a brief presentation by ONGC representative along with TPA would be made to apprise members regarding recent changes in process for submission of medical bills. This interaction would also enable ONGC/TPA to get feedback from members regarding difficulties being faced for taking necessary corrective actions.
 - e. It was also decided to order 250 sweet boxes for distribution to members after the event, order for which would be placed by Sh V P Mahawar.
3. EC decided that like previous years, felicitation of members attaining age of 90+ would be carried out. List of such members is to be prepared for ordering requisite number of plaques.
 - a. It was also decided to present plaques only to living members for which Sh Shiv Dayal & Sh Rajeev Bansal need to contact members and prepare final list.
4. EC also discussed need to revamp existing Website of EOEWa to make it useful by updating / adding relevant circulars, updated members directory and other useful information. At present, hits on website are very less due to non-availability of updated information.
5. EC also discussed and decided to organise Picnic during 3rd week of November 2025. Various options for possible venue were discussed and it was decided to identify one of the good farm houses around Gurgaon, not visited by EOEWa members during past years and which can cater to large group. Vice President Sh V P Mahawar volunteered to identify a good venue for the picnic.

- a. It was also discussed to request ONGC to provide buses for the members as was done in 2024.
6. In view of good participation and positive feedback, EC advised that travel committee should plan more trips both to domestic and international destinations.
 - a. Travel committee apprised EC regarding tentative plans to organise overseas trips to Europe and Bali and also domestic trips to Nainital , Madhya Pradesh (Jabalpur & Bhopal) or any other popular destination.
 - b. It was decided that Travel committee should meet at the earliest to plan itinerary, tentative dates and identify suitable travel agency to conduct overseas trips so that members can be informed well in time.
7. It was again decided that work for updating of the member's directory be started. Efforts be made to get the latest correct addresses and contact numbers and a system be developed to either replace the name of the deceased member with the living spouse, or indicate the status of the deceased person suitably.

Meeting concluded with EC members thanking President & Vice Presidents for their guidance.
